Dear Professor López-Pellicer,

It is a pleasure to accept your revised manuscript entitled "On spaces $C^b(X)$ weakly K -analytic" in its current form for publication in Mathematische Nachrichten. The comments of the referee(s) who reviewed your manuscript are included at the bottom of this letter.

Please note although the manuscript is accepted the files will now be checked to ensure that everything is ready for publication, and you may be contacted if final versions of files for publication are required.

A signed copyright transfer agreement is needed prior to publication. For further information see below.

Thank you for your contribution.

With best regards,
Robert Denk

Mathematische Nachrichten provides the possibility to have your article featured on the cover page with an illustrative and eye-catching figure which graphically represents the essence of your contribution.

The cover picture will be featured in the Table of Contents first place with a short description. Authors receive a high-resolution PDF file of the cover page.

For this individual service, Wiley would ask you to cover part of the production costs. Regular prices are 1195 € for the front cover and 895 € for the back cover (plus VAT, if applicable). High-quality posters of the cover in size A1 or A2 are available upon order. If you are interested, please contact the Coordinating Editor at marilene.balbi@t-online.de.

 OPEN ACCESS ***

Open access publication of this work is possible via Wiley OnlineOpen. Authors affiliated with an organization which has a Wiley Open Access Account can publish research articles open access without directly paying any open access publication charges. Check if your institution or funder centrally pays the Open Access Fee of your article, see <http://olabout.wiley.com/WileyCDA/Section/id-420429.html>

Otherwise, if you wish to send your paper OnlineOpen, please complete the form at: <https://onlinelibrary.wiley.com/onlineOpenOrder> , and forward a copy of your order to the Editorial Office.
